PER COURT:

1 These petitions can be disposed of by directing the Collector to take decision on the applications tendered by respective petitioners under Section 28A of the Land Acquisition Act, either himself or through his subordinates, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within six months from today; and it is accordingly directed.

3 In view of above, we have issued directions to the Collector, as referred to above in paragraph no.1. Upon redetermination of amount of compensation by the Collector, Respondent No.5 shall pay the amount to the respective claimants, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within four months from such redetermination.
