CORAM : R.M.BORDE &
P.R.BORA, JJ.
DATE : 21st July, 2015

PER COURT:

1 Both the petitioners raise challenge to the show cause notice issued by the Tahsildar, Jamkhed on 01.07.2015.

2 In exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, in our view, no interference is called for in the matter.

3 The petitioners apprehend that the Tahsildar is likely to take decision in prejudicial manner on consideration of contents of the communication issued by the District Collector, Ahmednagar, on 24.06.2015. The apprehension expressed by the petitioner is unfounded since no decision, as yet, has been taken by the Tahsildar and the Tahsildar, who is the Taluka Executive Magistrate, has been instructed to conduct inquiry and take decision in the matter by the Collector, is expected to act independently and take decision on the basis of material produced before him. Writ Petitions are devoid of substance.

4 Both the writ petitions stand dismissed.
