

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
BENCH AT AURANGABAD

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.4745 OF 2015

Sham s/o. Angad Navale ..Applicant

Versus

The State of Maharashtra ..Respondent

--

Mr.R.G.Hange, Advocate for the applicant

Mr.V.P.Kadam, APP for respondent - State

CORAM : M.T. JOSHI, J.

DATE : SEPTEMBER, 8, 2015

PER ORDER :

Heard Mr.Hange, learned counsel for the applicant.

2] The earlier application of the present applicant bearing Criminal Application No.6767 of 2013 for grant of anticipatory bail, was rejected by this Court vide order dated 3rd February, 2014.

3] Mr.Hange, learned counsel for the applicant, submits that the charge sheet now filed, would show that the son of complainant, on the next day of the incident, had communicated to the private hospital that some unknown person had caused the offences. As against this, in the complaint, the victim has named the assailants including present applicant. In the circumstances, he submits that, the contents of the F.I.R. prima facie are false and hence, anticipatory bail may be granted to the present applicant.

4] Perused the papers. It appears that there is hardly any change in the circumstances. The fact as to whether, the contents of the FIR are false or not, will have to be examined by the sessions court on its own merit.

5] As there are no change in the circumstances, the present application for grant of anticipatory bail is, therefore, rejected.
