CORAM : N.W. SAMBRE, J.

DATE : 27TH MARCH, 2015

ORAL ORDER :

. This appeal can be conveniently disposed of by the consent of the parties, in view of the consent order passed by Principal Seat of Bombay High Court in Family Appeal 198/2013 on 20/02/2015 whereby, the issue of custody of child is also resolved in terms of clause 1 (b), (c) and (d).

2. The said observations read thus:

“b) That the custody of the child Master Shardul will be remained with the Appellant, as right from beginning Master Shardul is residing along with his mother i.e. the Appellant. And the appellant himself has given education to him. It is agreed that every once in a week i.e. on Saturday evening till Sunday evening Master Shardul will remain with the Respondent Dr. Kirankumar S. Bhandare. It is his responsibility to return the child at the home of Appellant in the evening of Sunday.

c) During the May Vacation as well as Diwali Vacation the respondent husband is entitled to take Master Shardul at his residential home for a period of few days (atleast five days) as per the mutual understanding by and between the parties.

d) That the Respondent husband will provide fix amount of Rs.60,000/- to the appellant per year on account of expenditure on Master Shardul for his education, clothes and medicine in two instalments.”

3. The present First Appeal stands disposed of in above terms.

4. In view of disposal of the first appeal, civil applications do not survive, hence disposed of accordingly.
