CORAM : A. M. BADAR, J.

DATE : 18th November, 2015

PER COURT :

1. This is an application for withdrawal of remaining 50% amount of compensation deposited by the insurance company. This Court, vide order dated 23.03.2010, had granted stay to the impugned award and subsequently, after hearing the parties, vide order on Civil Application No.5364/2010, allowed the original claimants to withdraw 50% amount under the award.

2. Reasons stated for withdrawal of remaining 50% is marriage of applicant no.2, who was original claimant. The marriage is already over. In death claim, the amount awarded towards loss of dependency cannot be allowed to be spent for expenses of marriage. Hence civil application is rejected.
