.....

Mr. Shailesh P. Brahme, Advocate for the petitioners

.....

[CORAM : SUNIL P. DESHMUKH, J.]

DATE : 15th JULY, 2015

ORDER :

1. After hearing learned advocates for the parties, it appears that execution of decree passed in Special Civil Suit No.66 of 1980 is getting dodged by judgment debtors or at their behest by their relatives, which is apparent from the contents of paragraphs No. 10 to 13 of the impugned order dated 17th October, 2014. Additionally, this court, while passing order on 5th February, 2015 had directed the petitioners to deposit an aggregate amount of Rs.30,00,000/-. That condition as well does not appear to have been complied with.

2. Looking at aforesaid and the observations as are appearing in paragraphs No. 10 to 13 of the impugned order and looking at that learned advocate for the petitioners has not be able to controvert the same, I do not think that the writ petition deserves any consideration.

3. Writ petition, as such, stands rejected.

4. In view of disposal of writ petition, pending civil application does not survive and stands disposed of.
