

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

WRIT PETITION NO. 2138 OF 2015

Sudhakar Ganji Sonawane (Dhangar) .. Petitioner

Versus

The Union of India and others .. Respondents

Shri Pawan B. Pawar, Advocate for the Petitioner.

Shri S. B. Deshpande, Assistant Solicitor General for Respondent Nos.
1 and 2.

CORAM : S. V. GANGAPURWALA AND V. L ACHLIYA, JJ.

DATE : 25TH FEBRUARY, 2015.

PER COURT :

. Mr. Deshpande, the learned Assistant Solicitor General raises preliminary objection that the petitioner has remedy before the Central Administrative Tribunal.

2. In the light of that, though Mr. Pawar, the learned counsel sought to canvass submissions on merits, so also alternate submission to the extent of prayer clause D, we are not inclined to consider the same. The writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to avail the alternate remedy. All contentions are kept open. No costs.
