ASARAM SHRIRANGRAO CHAVHAL

...

Advocate for Applicants : Mr. Arora Shyam C

Advocate for non applicants: Shri Nilesh Avad

CORAM : A. M. BADAR, J.

DATE : 17th December, 2015

PER COURT :

1. Heard Shri Arora, learned counsel appearing for applicants. Shri Avad, learned counsel appears for non applicants/original claimants. He undertakes to file vakalatnama within a period of two weeks from today. At the instance of learned counsel appearing for both the parties, applications are taken up for hearing.

2. According to Shri Arora, learned counsel for applicant, because of procedural formalities and as decision was required to be taken at various levels, there is some delay in filing appeals. He submits that delay is not intentional. Shri Avad, learned counsel appearing for non applicants/original claimants submits that he has no objection for condonation of delay.

3. Hence, for the stated reason as well as keeping in mind the fact that non applicants have no objections for condonation of delay, the applications are allowed. Delay in filing appeals is condoned.

4. The applications are accordingly disposed of.
