appellant if he goes to the Court to recover the consideration paid by the appellant to the judgment debtor's daughter. For that, he wants the deletion of that finding from the order made by this Court.

4] After considering all the circumstances, this Court has made such an observation and has come to that conclusion. There is no possibility of changing that view as it is a finding and on the basis of the record, such a finding is given by this Court. The application stands rejected.
