Mr.V.P.Kadam, APP for respondent - State
Mr.V.B.Deshmukh, advocate for complainant

--

CORAM : M.T. JOSHI, J.
DATE : JUNE 25, 2015

PER COURT :

Heard.

2] Issue notice to respondent - State. Learned
APP waives notice for the same.

3] Perused the judgment and order passed by learned Special Judge, Osmanabad. Learned Special Judge has convicted the appellant/accused for the offences punishable under Section 363, 366-A and 376 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. The appellant/ accused was directed to suffer R.I. for 7 years for the offence punishable under Section 376 of Indian Penal Code and lesser sentences for other offences. All the sentences were directed to run concurrently. The fine amount has already been deposited by the appellant.

4] Reading of paragraph 2 of the judgment of learned Special Judge would show that the complainant i.e. father of minor victim of the offence, has, in F.I.R., stated that the victim was 17 years old and it was learnt that since one and half months prior to filing of the complaint on 14th February, 2013, the victim has love affair with the applicant.

5] Considering the overall facts on record, without making any comment on merit of the case, further, finding that the applicant was released on bail during pendency of the trial and there was no complaint of misusing liberty by him, in my view, he can very well be released on bail by suspending the substantive sentences.

6] Hence, the following order :-

a] The substantive sentences awarded by learned Special Judge are suspended during pendency of the appeal. The applicant be released on bail upon his executing P.R. bond in the sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rs.Fifteen Thousand) and also upon furnishing surety in the like amount.

b] The application is allowed and disposed of accordingly.
