

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY,
BENCH AT AURANGABAD

CIVIL REVISION APPLICATION NO.12 OF 2015

Ramzan s/o Babulal Shah ... APPLICANT

VERSUS

Maulavi Wada Mosque Trust & anr. ... RESPONDENTS

.....
Shri Y.B. Pathan, Advocate for applicant
.....

CORAM: A.I.S. CHEEMA, J.

DATED: 21st January, 2015.

ORAL ORDER :

1. Heard counsel for the applicant. Perused impugned order. In the application No.38/2014 before the Waqf Tribunal, below exhibit 5, respondent No.1 sought short time to file say. The Presiding Officer granted time and directed that in the meanwhile, status quo be maintained. This order has been impugned before me. There is no illegality or material irregularity in the order which was passed. It was an interim direction, and the application filed is yet not decided.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that, there is no Presiding Officer in the Waqf Tribunal as yet and the charge is with the District Judge, at the District Court, Aurangabad. He submits that, as Presiding Officer was not there, the present revision was required to be filed as the applicant felt aggrieved by the impugned order.

3. I do not find any reason to entertain the present application against the impugned order. District Judge-3, Aurangabad, who is stated to be incharge of the Waqf Tribunal matters, can deal with the application Exhibit 5 filed in Application No.38/2014, expeditiously.

4. Civil Revision Application No.12/2014 is disposed of with directions to the District Judge, Aurangabad, Incharge of Waqf Tribunal matters to expeditiously deal with Exhibit 5 filed in Application No.38/2014 of the Maharashtra State Waqf Tribunal, Aurangabad. Efforts be made to decide the application within a month.
