Date:- 13th April, 2015

P.C.

This is an application for extension of time filed by the applicant/State Government to comply with the time limit recorded on behalf of the State Government in the judgment dated 4.12.2014 to constitute an Appellate Forum in substitution of provisions of Section 184(d) of the Goa Municipalities Act.

2. Learned Additional Government Advocate points out that on account of administrative reasons and as the process to that regard to constitute a new Appellate Forum would consume considerable time, the statement made on behalf of the State Government in Judgment dated 4.12.2014 by the learned Advocate General while disposing of above Writ Petition, cannot be complied with.

3. In such circumstances, taking note of the fact that the directions issued by this Court are self-operating, we find that the applicant, if so advised, can always proceed to examine the constitution of Appellate Forum in accordance with law. There are also petitions filed based on the said judgment.

4. As such the question of granting further time to constitute such Forum would not be appropriate and as such that statement on behalf of State Government would no longer survive automatically.

5. Application stands disposed of.
