P.C.

and Ms. S. Linhares, learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for the respondent nos. 1 to 3.

2. The dispute is with regard to the ownership and possession of the

3. According to the applicant, the said land belongs to him and he claim right over the said land based on the agreement for sale and name of his predecessor in title is appearing in form I and XIV.

4. As against this, learned Additional Government Advocate argued that said land does not belong to the applicant and if at all it belongs to the applicant, then Government is proposing to acquired it.
