and Registrar's order

Shri Atul P. Vanarse, Advocate for Appellant.

Coram : R.K. Deshpande, J.

Dated : 7th July, 2015

The learned counsel for the appellant seeks permission to withdraw the second appeal itself with liberty to file an application for review before the lower Court.

In view of this, the second appeal is permitted to be withdrawn with liberty as prayed for, if it is otherwise permissible in law.

The second appeal is disposed of as withdrawn.

In view of the withdrawal of the second appeal, all civil applications filed in this appeal do not survive and the same also stand disposed of.

The appellant shall be at liberty to file such applications in the review application.

Judge.
