P.C. :

. Perused the submissions dated 01/11/2014 put by the Registrar (Inspection – II) to the Hon'ble the Chief Justice. It appears that one Shri Vasant Ramchandra Ratnaparkhi made complaint dated 16/08/2014 against Ms.S.R.Kadu, the then District Judge-1, Pandharpur (for short 'District Judge'). The Principal District Judge, Solapur (for short 'P.D.J.') submitted report dated 01/09/2014 to the Registrar General made on the basis of complaint dated 16/08/2014. In the report, the learned P.D.J. noted that in 10 Criminal Miscellaneous Applications (Bail Applications), only operative orders were dictated by the learned District Judge to the stenographer Mr.R.G.Waghmare.

2. In Special Case No. 1 of 2011, only operative order of conviction was dictated by the learned District Judge.

3. In Regular Civil Suit No. 53 of 2012, only operative order was dictated by the learned District Judge.

4. In Motor Accident Claim Petition No. 24 of 2007, it was shown to have been disposed of on 28/06/2014. However, dictation of only pleadings was given. After 14/08/2014, the learned District Judge did not have any power and authority to deliver any judgment as she was discharged from service on 14/08/2014 for not completing period of probation satisfactorily. The judgment in Motor Accident Claim Petition No. 24 of 2007 was sent to the Court after 14/08/2014, but was not signed by the learned District Judge.

5. In Regular Civil Appeal No. 204 of 2003, the judgment was sent to the Court on 26/08/2014 which was typed on a plain paper and not typed on a bond paper.

6. The learned P.D.J. also forwarded report of Mr.Phutane, Senior Clerk and Mr.R.G.Waghmare, stenographer of the Court presided over by the learned District Judge. The report of the stenographer indicated that in Miscellaneous Applications (Bail Applications), the learned District Judge gave him dictation of only operative order. Mr.Phutane, Senior Clerk also gave his report. The submission inter alia also note various shortcomings in the orders passed by the learned District Judge.

7. The Registry submitted that the situation is peculiar and very rare as in all those cases either i) there is no judgment or ii) there is operative part but no judgment or iii) there is judgment but it is not signed and iv) in one case, judgment was typed on a plaint paper and not on a bond paper. It was forwarded only after the learned District Judge discharged from service. The learned District Judge was required to dictate the judgment, get it transcribed, sign it and then pronounce it as per Civil and Criminal Manual. The learned District Judge did not follow the procedure. She pronounced the judgments without giving the dictations. The judgments are non est. The Registry, therefore, solicited orders of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice. Accordingly, following submission 'A' was approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Justice.

“If Your Lordship approves, the letter of Principal District Judge, Solapur dated 01/09/2014 along with annexures be forwarded to the Registrar (Judicial I) for placing the same before the appropriate Bench on Judicial side for seeking directions whether to treat it as revision under Section 115 of C.P.C. read with 151 of Civil Procedure Code for Civil matters and whether to treat it as revision under Section 401 read with Sections 482 of Cr.P.C. for Criminal matters and for further necessary action.”

A

8. In pursuance thereof, the submissions dated 19/03/2015 were submitted by the Registrar (Judicial -I) before Hon'ble Mr.Justice M.S.Sonak. On 24/03/2015, Hon'ble Mr.Justice M.S.Sonak approved following submission 'A'.

“Whether to treat 10 Suo Motu Civil Writ Petitions under Article 227 of the Constitution of India arising out of 10 Civil matters (5 Civil Appeals, 2 Misc. Civil Appeals and 3 MACPs.)”

A

9. Accordingly, these matters were treated as Suo Motu Petitions under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

10. The Registry sought response from the learned District Judge as to whether i) the orders were communicated to the parties; ii) the orders were uploaded and consequently, they were downloaded by the parties; iii) orders were supplied to the parties; iv) orders were communicated to the parties. In response thereto communications are received from the learned District Judge to the effect that the orders were not communicated to the parties. The orders were also not uploaded and downloaded.
