

count of having given information to the police regarding commission of a crime by one of the co-accused, denotes that there is every likelihood of the Applicant committing further offences if released on bail. It is submitted that investigation is complete and injured is reported to be discharged from hospital.

2. Even though the learned APP has objected the prayer for bail for the reasons narrated herein above, still having regard to the fact that the offences for which the Applicant is charge-sheeted are not exclusively punishable with death or imprisonment for life and since the investigation is complete and the apprehension expressed by the learned APP can be taken care of by imposing strict conditions and the time which would be required for completion of the Applicant's trial, discretion deserves to be exercised in favour of grant of bail.

3. Resultantly, the application is allowed. The Applicant is directed to be released on bail in C.R.No.141 of 2014 of Meghwadi Police Station, District-Mumbai on furnishing P.R. Bond in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) with one or more sureties to make up like amount and subject to conditions that after his release the applicant shall (i) not enter the area of Greater Bombay except for attending the dates fixed in the case against him and even on said date the Applicant shall not enter the area under the jurisdiction of the Meghwadi Police Station for any reason; (ii) inform his place of abode to the I.O. and shall not change the same without prior permission of the Trial Court iii) attend the local police station for the said area on every Monday in between 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. until further order; (iii) not indulge in activity of tampering, threatening, coercing, intimidating or pressurizing the prosecution witnesses in any manner; and (iv) not misuse the bail granted vide this order for fleeing away or for committing any further offence.

4. The application accordingly stands disposed of.
