

Devashish Niranjana Das ...Applicant
vs.
State of Maharashtra ...Respondent

 $1/3$

3. At the hearing of this application the learned APP has brought to the notice that the applicant was found circulating fake currency notes, the charge is framed against him way back on 17/12/2012 but the proceeding could not be further proceeded in view of co-accused having absconded but now the steps for securing the presence of the co-accused have been taken.

4. Since the accusation faced by the applicant is of serious nature and the charge being framed, his prayer for releasing him on cash security can not be acceded at the present delicate stage of trial.

5. Hence, the application is disposed of with direction to the Court of Session seized with the matter to commence and complete the trial at the earliest and in any event within a period of four months from the date of receipt of this order.

6. Copy of the order be sent to the applicant through jail.

7. The learned appointed advocate is entitled for the fees as per the rules.
