Coram : R.K. Deshpande, J.
Dated : 12th June, 2015

P.C.:

The second appeal has already been admitted by framing the substantial question of law. The decree was passed by the Trial Court restraining the defendants from erecting the construction and disturbing the possession of the applicant over the suit property. During the pendency of the appeal preferred by the defendants, there was no interim order; as a result, the decree passed by the Tribunal Court continues to operate.

In view of this, the interim relief in terms of prayer clause (a) shall continue to operate pending the decision of this appeal.

The civil application stands disposed of.
