CORAM : RANJIT MORE AND V.L.ACHLIYA, JJ.

DATED : 11TH DECEMBER, 2015

P.C. :-

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants, learned counsel for respondent No.3 and the learned A.P.P. for the State. This application is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution and under the provisions of Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for quashing the Criminal Case No.413/2014 pending on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Thane on the basis of F.I.R. bearing No. I-141/2014 registered with Navghar police station, Thane at the instance of respondent No.3 against the applicants for the offences punishable under Section 420, 467, 468, 469, 471, 474, 193, 197, 198 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

2. Pending trial, the parties amicably settled their dispute and have approached this Court for quashing the subject criminal case by consent. Respondent No.3 has filed an affidavit dated 11th December, 2015. In paragraph 8, he has stated that he has no objection if the subject criminal case is quashed. Respondent No.3 is personally present before the Court. He is identified by his Advocate. On being questioned, respondent No.2 specifically stated that he has gone through the affidavit and has fully understood the contents thereof and has no objection if the subject criminal case is quashed. He also stated that he is giving no objection for quashing the said proceedings out of free will and without there being any pressure or coercion.

3. It can, thus, be seen that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties. From the perusal of complaint, it transpires that the allegations are totally personal in nature. There is no element of public law involved in the offence. The offence alleged cannot be said to have any impact on the society. In these circumstances, and especially, in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Narinder Singh V/s. State of Punjab [2014 AIR SCW 2065], we find that no purpose would be served by keeping the criminal proceedings pending except burdening the criminal Courts which are already overburdened. In that view of the matter and in the interests of justice, the criminal case No.413/2015 pending on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Thane is required to be quashed. However, at the same time, cost needs to be saddled on the parties for using the police and judicial mechanism for settling their personal disputes.

4. Accordingly, the application is made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a) subject to payment of costs of Rs.20,000/- to be deposited by the applicants to be deposited with the Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai for the use of its philanthropic purposes and thereafter produce the receipt thereof on the file of this application within a period of four weeks from today, failing which, the criminal application shall stand dismissed automatically without further reference to the Court.

5. Subject to the above, the criminal application stands disposed of.
