

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
BAIL APPLICATION NO.713 OF 2015

Shri Sambhaji Maruti Yadav
Versus
State of Maharashtra

....Applicant.
...Respondents.

Mr. S.S.Adyanthaya, advocate for the Applicant.
Mr. Arfan Sait, APP for the respondent-State.
IO Mr. H.R.Shinde PSI Rajgad Police Station, Pune Gramin present.

CORAM : MRS. MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.
DATED : April 29, 2015.

P.C.:

Application is moved for regular bail as the applicant-accused is charged for the offence under Section 302 IPC.

2 The learned prosecutor informs the Court on the basis of instructions given by the Investigating Officer, who is present in the Court that the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Pune has framed charge fortnight back and now the trial is going to commence. The learned prosecutor on query further informs on instructions that it is a matter of 16-18 witnesses.

3 In view of the submissions of the learned prosecutor without going into the merits of the matter, application is disposed of and the learned trial Judge to endeavour to complete the trial within three months. Office to send order to the trial Judge.

(MRS.MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.)