CORAM : NARESH H. PATIL AND

DATED : 30th June 2015.

PC.

It is the contention of the petitioners that objections of petitioner No.2 were partly accepted while objections of petitioner No.1 were rejected. It is their further contention that village has 6185 population. The said figure is to be divided by 5 wards. Accordingly population figure is to be distributed for arriving at proper formation of wards which, according to the petitioners, has not been done.

2. Mr.Shete, learned counsel appearing for respondent No.4- Election Commission submits that the population figure has been distributed in the following manner:

Ward No.1	1,196
Ward No.1	1,281
Ward No.1	1,194
Ward No.1	1,292
Ward No.1	1,222
Total	6,185

3. Learned counsel submits that in accordance with the rules prescribed for the said purpose i.e. Bombay Village Panchayats (Numbers of Members, Divisions into Wards and Reservation of Seats) Rules, 1966, wards have been formed.

4. We have perused the record.

5. In view of submissions made and in view of the fact that the election process is set in motion, we are not inclined to interfere in our extra ordinary writ jurisdiction. Writ petition is dismissed.
