Friday 4 September, 2015

P.C.:

The Contempt petition is pending since the year 2007 for want of service on the Respondents. The learned counsel for the Petitioner states that the contempt alleged in this petition is of order dated 23 January 2007 filed by the School Tribunal, Mumbai. The order dated 23 January 2007 is an interim order passed in the appeal filed by the Petitioner. The learned counsel for the Petitioner states that thereafter the Appeal itself has been allowed and the Respondent-management has not complied even with the final order and separate contempt petition is filed. It appears that the said contempt petition is already disposed of. It is always open to the Petitioner to take such steps available in law for execution of the order. In view of this position, it is not necessary to entertain the Contempt petition any further. Contempt petition is accordingly disposed of.

2. In view of the disposal of the Contempt petition, the Civil applications do not survive.
