CORAM : ABHAY M. THIPSAY J.

DATED : 9TH OCTOBER 2015

P.C.

1. None appears for the applicants/appellants. The matter was called out in the morning session, and as none appeared for the applicants, the applications were kept back.
2. Now the applications have been called out in the second session, but, as aforesaid, none appears for the applicants.
3. The prayer is for suspension of the conviction. It is well settled that suspension of conviction, though possible in law, can be done only in exceptional circumstances and for extraordinary reasons. The counsel for the applicants has not chosen to remain present and make submissions in support of the applications.
4. The applications are rejected.
5. Liberty to move the Court for getting the hearing of the appeal expedited.
