

1 Leave to amend the prayer clause is granted.

2 This Miscellaneous Civil Application filed under Section 24 of Code of Civil Procedure is for transfer of Marriage Petition No.97 of 2014 from the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Mahad to Family Court at Bandra, Mumbai. The applicant states that she resides at Bhandup along with her parents, whereas the respondent is presently residing at Panvel in connection with his service. Admittedly, there is 2½ years old girl child whose custody is with the applicant. The matrimonial petition filed by the respondent does not refer to the residential addresses of the parties in the cause title. But no dispute is raised by the respondent as regards the residential addresses. Apparently, the matrimonial petition is filed in the court within the jurisdiction of which marriage of the parties had taken place. Neither of the parties reside at that place today. Considering this position, the application is allowed in terms of prayer clause (b).
