Versus
Akash K. Lalwani. ..Respondent.

Mrs. Anjali Helekar for the Appellant.

Coram : RANJIT MORE &
SMT. ANUJA PRABHUDESSAI, JJ.
Date : January 9, 2015.

P. C. :

1. The record indicates that the dispute between the parties has been settled before the Loknyayalaya, Mahalok-Adalat held on 12th April 2014. On that day, parties tendered consent terms before the Lok-Adalat and in terms of those consent terms, the matter was disposed of.

2. Today, the Appellant and the Respondent are personally present before this Court. They state that dispute was settled before the Lok-Adalat on 12th April 2014 and, therefore, decree be drawn up in terms of those consent terms.

3. Perusal of the order dated 12th April 2014 passed by the Panel of Mahalok-Adalat shows that the parties appeared before the Panel with consent terms, the consent terms were taken on record and appeal was disposed of in terms of the consent terms. However, there is no order for drawing up the award as contemplated under section 21 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. In above circumstances, Office is directed to draw decree as per the consent terms and as per the order dated 12th April 2014 passed by the Panel of Mahalok Adalat. Certified copy is expedited. Appeal stands disposed of. In view of the disposal of the appeal, civil application, if any, taken out in this appeal, does not survive and same is accordingly disposed of.
