

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION (ST) NO.20972 OF 2014

Shri Kamlesh Rajendra Betala and ors.).. Petitioners.

V/s

Vidya Sahakari Bank Ltd and ors.).. Respondents.

.....
Nikhil Rajani i/b V. Deshpande & Co., for petitioners.
S.S. Panchpor i/b SNP Legal, for respondents No.1 and 2.
Vaishali Nimbalkar-AGP, for respondents No.3, 4 and 5.

.....
CORAM : M.S. SONAK, J.
DATE : JANUARY 12, 2015

P.C.

1. Shri Rajani, the Learned Counsel for the petitioners fairly states that the order passed in this petition is revisable and such Revision Petition has already been preferred by the petitioners.
2. In the aforesaid circumstances, it would not be proper to entertain the present petition, which is accordingly dismissed.
3. This order may not be construed as any expression of any opinion on merits and the pending proceedings may be disposed of on its merits and in accordance with law.

(M.S. SONAK, J.)