CORAM : A. R. JOSHI, J.

DATE : 1st OCTOBER, 2015

P.C.

1. The appellant/orig. accused is brought from the jail custody. Yesterday he was produced before the Court on NBW issued by this Court. Today learned Counsel for the applicant / appellant is present before the Court. The appeal is already admitted vide order dated 1.9.2015. The arguments are heard on the application for bail during pendency of appeal and suspension of substantive sentence.

2. The applicant is convicted for the offences punishable under Sections 354, 323, 506 and 504 of IPC. For the major offence under Section 354 of IPC, he is sentenced to suffer RI for two years. Relevant fine amounts were also awarded. During the trial, the applicant/appellant was on bail. Even after the conviction he was granted bail for a period of three weeks. Thereafter he overstayed the bail and did not surrender before the trial Court and as such NBW was issued against him and now presently he is before the Court.

3. Under these circumstances, considering the maximum punishment of two years inflicted on him, the applicant is released on same bail as granted by the trial Court with fresh bonds to be executed before the trial Court. After said compliance of execution of bonds before the trial Court will be over, he shall be released from jail custody. This order of bail is subject to the deposit of entire fine amount before the trial Court. Application for bail is accordingly disposed of.
