

1 of 3

5. The case of the Petitioner is that there was already an application for reference of the parties to mediation pending and that is the reason why adjournment was applied for. Although, the reason is not very convincing, yet another opportunity is required to be granted to the Petitioner.

6. The Petitioner states that on the next date, the Petitioner will ensure to proceed with the cross-examination without any excuse. On the basis of this assurance, the impugned order is set aside. The matter is posted tomorrow before the Trial Court. The Trial Court is directed to fix yet another date for cross-examination of the Respondent-husband and on such date, the Petitioner to proceed with the cross-examination without any excuse.

7. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. There shall be no order as to costs.

8. All concerned to act on basis of authenticated copy of this order.

(M. S. SONAK, J.)

CERTIFICATE

Certified to be true and correct copy of the original signed
Order.