Mr. Vijay Pandurang Vaidya, Advocate for petitioner in all Petitions.

Ms. N. R. Patankar with Mr. Vishwajit Parshuram Sawant, Advocate for respondents in all Petitions.

CORAM : R.G.KETKAR,J.
RESERVED ON : 17/02/2015.
PRONOUNCED ON : 26/02/2015

ORDER:

1. Heard Mr. Vijay Vaidya, learned counsel for the petitioner and Ms. N.R.Patankar and Mr V. P. Sawant, learned counsel for the respondents at length.

2. Mr. Vaidya submitted that after the arguments were concluded, the petitioner has filed Civil Applications for taking on record compilation of documents of 121 workmen concerning the present petitions and also the record maintained by the Excise Department regarding shift working. He submits that the petitioner got hold of these documents after the decision of the Labour Court impugned in the present petitions. He, therefore, seeks permission to withdraw these Petitions with a liberty to file Review Petitions before the concerned Labour Court seeking review of the impugned orders passed in Recovery Applications. He further submits that for a period of eight weeks from today, the ad-interim order granted on 18.7.2013 may be continued. He assures that within four weeks from today, the petitioner will file Review Petitions before the concerned Labour Court and will move that Court for obtaining appropriate interim reliefs.

3. Mr. Sawant submits that he was served with the applications. It may be taken as respondents have denied the contents of those applications. He further submits that all the contentions of the respondents including maintainability of Review Petitions may be kept open.

4. In view thereof, on the motion made by Mr. Vaidya, these Writ Petitions are allowed to be withdrawn with liberty as prayed for. All the contentions of the parties on merits including that of maintainability of Review Petitions are expressly kept open.

5. If such Review Petitions are filed, the Labour Court is requested to decide the same on the basis of the material on record and in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible and in any case within six months from the date of filing of the Review Petitions. Notwithstanding withdrawal of these Petitions, the ad-interim order dated 18.7.2013 shall remain in force upto and inclusive of eight weeks from today. It is expected that in the meantime, the petitioner will move the concerned Labour Court for obtaining appropriate interim reliefs. It is expressly made clear that by continuing the ad-interim order, I have not expressed any opinion on merits either way.
