

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO. 9754 OF 2015

Shree Suvarna Sah. Bank Ltd.,
through its Authorized signatory.

... Petitioner

v/s

Assistant Provident Fund Commissioner
& anr.

... Respondents

Mr.A.P.Wachasundar for the petitioner.

Mr.Suresh Kumar for the respondents.

CORAM: N.M. JAMDAR, J.

DATED : 17 NOVEMBER 2015

P.C.:

The petition challenges the order passed on 12 August 2015. When the petition was filed, review application filed by the Petitioner was pending which has now been decided by an order dated 30 October 2015 and the review application is rejected.

2. The Petitioner has remedy of statutory appeal under Section 7(1) of the Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. In view thereof it is not necessary to entertain the petition. The Petitioner is, in law, entitled to raise all such grounds as may be available to it, both factual and legal and the Tribunal will consider the grounds raised by the Petitioner.

3. Since an alternate efficacious remedy is available, the writ petition is not entertained and is disposed of by keeping all the contentions open.
