

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

FAMILY COURT APPEAL NO. 198 OF 2013

Dr. Shilpa Bhandare

..Appellant

v/s.

Dr. Kirankumar Shrikrishna Bhandare

..Respondent

Mr. S.P.Thorat for the Appellant.

Mr.Jitendra Gaikwad for the Respondent.

CORAM : RANJIT MORE &

SMT. ANUJA PRABHUDESSAI,JJ.

DATED : FEBRUARY 20, 2015.

P.C.

1. The parties have settled their dispute amicably out of court and have filed consent terms. Under the consent terms the parties agree to dissolve their marriage. The parties agree to settle their dispute in following terms:

- a) That the marriage by and between the parties is hereby dissolved from the date of the order passed by this Honourable Court.
- b) That the custody of the child Master Shardul will be remained with the Appellant, as right from beginning Master Shardul is residing along with his mother i.e. the Appellant. And the appellant himself has given education to him. It is agreed that every once in a week i.e. on Saturday evening till Sunday evening Master Shardul will remain with the Respondent Dr. Kirankumar S. Bhandare. It is his responsibility to return the child at the home of Appellant in the evening of Sunday.

c) During the May Vacation as well as Diwali Vacation the respondent husband is entitled to take Master Shardul at his residential home for a period of few days (atleast five days) as per the mutual understanding by and between the parties.

d) That the Respondent husband will provide fix amount of Rs.60,000/- to the appellant per year on account of expenditure on Master Shardul for his education, clothes and medicine in two instalments.

e) The appellant will not ask any amount from the Respondent on account of her maintenance.

2. The consent terms are signed by the appellant and respondent along with their respective counsel. The appellant and the respondent, both are personally present before the court . On specific query they state that they have gone through the consent terms and understood the contents thereof. They have stated that the Family Court Appeal be disposed of in terms of the above consent terms. Accordingly, consent terms are taken on record and marked “X” for identification.

3. The undertaking given by the parties are accepted. The family court appeal no.198 of 2013 is disposed of in terms of the consent terms. Decree be drawn in terms of the consent terms.

(ANUJA PRABHUDESSAI, J.)

(RANJIT MORE, J.)