

been lodged by the party of applicants, the applicants were also required to be hospitalized, the counter F.I.R. registered amongst other for the offences under Section 307 of Indian Penal Code, it is difficult to negative the prayer for pre arrest bail on the count of the weapon of the offence is yet to be recovered. The perusal of the papers of investigation also does not reveal any imperative need of custodial interrogation of the applicants for the purpose of completion of investigation.

3. It appears accordingly having regard to the nature of the weapon allegedly used by the applicants and the reason because of which the quarrel has been ensued in between the parties, the same can not be said to be a sole mode of recovery of the said weapon. However, learned APP pointed out that there exists a rivalry in between the parties, while confirming ad-interim direction, it appears proper to impose certain strict conditions.

4. Resultantly, the application is allowed. The ad-interim direction given vide order dated 29-12-2014 is hereby confirmed on earlier terms and conditions with modification that each of the applicants shall attend the investigating officer on every Monday and Friday in between 4.00 pm to 5.00 pm until filing of the charge-sheet.
