

forms has been deposited in this Court, there is no question of allowing any party to register the deed of transfer with the Sub-Registrar of Assurances. No order is, thus, necessary in terms of prayer clause (b) also. As far as the injunction sought in prayer clauses (d) and (e) is concerned, learned Counsel for the Defendant states that his client will not be able to take any steps either for implementation of or in pursuance of the deed of transfer and the relevant forms or in respect of the suit premises and the shares of the society in view of the fact that the deed and the transfer forms are already deposited in this Court. The statement is accepted. The Notice of Motion is disposed of in terms of the statement.

(S.C. GUPTE, J.)