CORAM: S. J. Kathawalla, J.

DATE: 30th April, 2015

PC.

1. Heard Learned Counsel for the parties. No objector has come before the court to oppose the Scheme and nor any party has controverted any averments made in the Petitions.

2. The sanction of the Court is sought to a Scheme of Amalgamation of LIGHTNING ENTERPRISES PRIVATE LIMITED, the Transferor Company with PROMETHEUS FINANCIAL & MANAGEMENT SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED, the Transferee Company, under Sections 391 to 394 of the Companies Act, 1956.

3. The Learned Counsel for the Petitioners states that the Transferor Company is carrying on business as Investment Company Investing in Mutual Funds, Fixed Deposit with Bank, etc and Transferee Company is carrying the business as Non Banking, Non Deposit accepting, Finance Company. Investing in Public Listed Shares, Mutual Funds, Taxable and Non Taxable Bonds and Debentures, Brokerage on Placement of Shares etc. The proposed scheme of Amalgamation will have the benefit that the amalgamation will enable the Transferee Company to consolidate the businesses and lead to broad base the area of operation and create a stronger financial base and it would be advantageous to combine the activities and operations of both companies into a single Company for economies of the scale and the benefit of combined financial resources. This will be reflected in the profitability of the Transferee Company and this Scheme of amalgamation would result in merger and thus consolidation of business of the Transferor Company and the Transferee Company in one entity, all the shareholders of the merged entity will be benefited by result of the amalgamation of Business and availability of a common operating platform and the Amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company will also provide an opportunity to leverage combined assets and build a stronger sustainable business. Specifically, the merger will enable optimal utilization of existing resources and provide an opportunity to fully leverage strong assets, capabilities, experience, expertise and infrastructure of both the companies. The merged entity will also have sufficient funds required for meeting its long term capital needs as provided for in the scheme and the Scheme of amalgamation will result in cost saving for both the companies as they are capitalizing on each other's core competency and resources which is expected to result in stability of operations, cost savings and higher profitability levels for the Amalgamated Company.

4. Learned Counsel for the Petitioners further states that the Board of Directors of the Petitioner Companies have approved the said Scheme of Amalgamation by passing Board Resolutions which are annexed to the respective Company Scheme Petitions.

5. The Learned Counsel for the Petitioners further states that, Petitioner Companies have complied with all the directions passed in the respective Company Summons for Directions and that the respective Company Scheme Petitions have been filed in consonance with the orders passed in respective Company Summons for Directions.

6. The Learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioners have stated that the Petitioner Companies have complied with all requirements as per directions of this Court and they have filed necessary affidavit of compliance in the Court. Moreover, the Petitioner Companies undertake to comply with all statutory requirements if any, as required under the Companies Act, 1956 / 2013 and rules made there under whichever is applicable. The said undertaking is accepted.

7. The Official Liquidator has filed his report on 20th day of April, 2015 in Company Scheme Petition No. 101 of 2015 stating that the affairs of the Transferor Company have been conducted in a proper manner and that the Transferor Company may be ordered to be dissolved

8. The Regional Director has filed an Affidavit on 23rd day of April, 2015 stating therein, save and except as stated in paragraph 6, it appears that the Scheme is not prejudicial to the interest of shareholders and public. In paragraph 6 of the said Affidavit, the Regional Director has stated that:-

“6. That the Deponents further submits that,

(a) That the Deponent further submits that, the tax issue if any arising out of this scheme shall be subject to final decision of Income Tax Authority and approval of the scheme by Hon’ble High court may not deter the Income Tax Authority to scrutinize the tax returns filed by the petitioner company after giving effect to the amalgamation, The decision of the Income Tax Authority is binding on the petitioner company.

9. So far as the observation in paragraph 6(a) of the Affidavit of Regional Director is concerned, the Learned Counsel for the Petitioner Companies submit that the Petitioner Companies are bound to comply with all applicable provisions of Income Tax Act and all tax issues arising out of the Scheme will be met and answered in accordance with law.

10. The Learned Counsel for Regional Director on instructions of Mr. M. Chandana Muthu, Joint Director Legal in the office of the Regional Director, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Western Region, Mumbai states that they are satisfied with the undertakings given by the Petitioners. The above undertakings is accepted.

11. From the material on record, the Scheme appears to be fair and reasonable and is not violative of any provisions of law and is not contrary to public policy.

12. Since all the requisite statutory compliances have been fulfilled, Company Scheme Petition No. 101 of 2015 is made absolute in terms of prayers clause (a) and (d) and 102 of 2015 is made absolute in terms of prayer clauses (a) and (c).
