

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
NOTICE OF MOTION NO.150 OF 2013
IN
WRIT PETITION NO.754 OF 2010

All India Manufacturer's Applicant
Organisation (Ori. petitioner)

In the matter between:

All India Manufacturer's Petitioner
Organisation

Vs.

General Kamgar Union (Red Flag)... Respondents & Ors.

Mr. Vikas Khanchandani i/by Rajesh Gehani, Advocate for the Applicant.

Mr. Gurumath Naik, Advocate for Respondents no.2 and 3.

Coram : Smt. R.P SondurBaldota, J.

Date : 6th July, 2015

P.C.

1 On 8th July, 2010, this petition was admitted and the petitioners were directed to deposit salary of respondents no.2 and 3 in this court at every quarter with liberty to respondents no.2 and 3 to withdraw the amount. The initial deposits made have already been withdrawn by respondents no.2 and 3. Now the petitioners have taken out the present Notice of Motion seeking modification of the order for making the payment directly to respondents no.2 and 3 of the salaries for the periods 1st April, 2013 instead of depositing it in the court. Mr. Naik, the learned advocate for respondents no.2 and 3 has no objection to the direct payment. Hence, the Notice of Motion is allowed in terms of prayer clause (a)(i).
