Ms.S.I.Joshi, i/b. M/s.S.I.Joshi & Co., for the Petitioner.

None for the Respondents.

CORAM : R.D. DHANUKA, J.
DATE : 9TH SEPTEMBER, 2015.

P.C. :-

1. This Petition is filed by the petitioner under section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 seeking interim measures i.e. for appointment of Court Receiver, injunction and other reliefs against the respondents.

2. Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner tenders an affidavit of service and states that the respondent no.1 has been served. The petitioner does not seek any relief against respondent no.2. The affidavit of service is taken on record. None appears for the respondent no.1, though served. No affidavit in reply is filed.

3. The Petitioner had provided a loan of Rs.41,80,000/- to the first Respondent under a Loan-cum-Hypothecation Agreement entered into on 28th August, 2012. The loan was repayable in 52 equated monthly installments. Clause 12 of the Agreement provides for the events of default; Clause 13 provides consequences in the event of default and Clause 14 provides for the rights of the Petitioner on default including repossession of the asset. Clause 17 provides for arbitration. There has been a default on the part of the Respondents. Petitioner issued legal notice dated 5th February, 2015 and called upon the respondents to pay Rs.37,11,004/- with further interest from 8th April, 2014 till payment. There was no response to the notice of demand. Perusal of the record indicates that respondents have committed default in making payment of installments. The respondents were liable to pay to the petitioner a sum of Rs.37,11,004/-. The petitioner has invoked the provision of arbitration.

4. In the present Petition, the Petitioner has sought appointment of the Court Receiver as Receiver of the hypothecated assets/equipments, more particularly described in Exhibit-F to the Petition. In absence of any defence or contest by the Respondents, the averments contained in Petition would have to be accepted. There has been a default in payment of the outstanding dues. It would, therefore, be necessary to safeguard the interest of the Petitioner by appointing the Court Receiver as Receiver of the hypothecated assets/equipments. The appointment of the Receiver is necessary in order to ensure that the assets/equipments are not wasted or alienated, thereby defeating the rights of the Petitioner. Section 9 empowers the Court to pass an interim measure of protection. Hence, the following order:-

- i) The Court Receiver, High Court, Bombay is appointed as a Receiver in respect of the assets/equipments at Exhibit-F. The Court Receiver shall give an option to the Respondent no.1 in writing to act as agent of Receiver in respect of the said assets/equipments. The Respondent no.1 shall be given two weeks time by the Court Receiver from the date of receipt of the Court Receiver's communication letter to exercise such option. In the event of the respondent no.1 being desirous of acting as agent of the Receiver, he shall be appointed as agent of the Receiver, subject to security and royalty. The Receiver shall determine the quantum of security and royalty having regard to the terms and conditions contained in the Loan-cum-Hypothecation Agreement (Exhibit –A to the Petition).

- ii) In the event that the Respondent no.1 does not communicate his willingness to the Receiver to act as agent within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of the communication from the Court Receiver, Court Receiver to take forcible possession of the assets/equipments and if necessary with the assistance of police from the respondents. It would be open to the Petitioner to apply to the Court for further orders including sale of the assets/equipments by private treaty.
- iii) Until the Receiver takes possession, there shall be an interim injunction restraining the Respondent no.1 from alienating, encumbering, parting with possession or creating any third party right in respect of the assets/equipments described in Exhibit–F to the Petition.

5. Petitioner is directed to approach the office of the Court Receiver for enforcement of this order within 4 weeks from today.

6. If the petitioner does not take steps for appointment of the arbitrator within four weeks from today, if not already appointed, interim order passed today to stand vacated without further reference to the Court.

7. The Arbitration Petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.

8. Parties as well as the Court Receiver to act on an authenticated copy of this order.
