IN
SUIT NO.53 OF 2007

India Advisory Partners P. Ltd. & Anr.	...	Plaintiffs
Vs.
Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd.	...	Defendant

Alpana Ghone, Adv. i/b. Kanga & Co. for plaintiffs.
Raj Patel, Counsel, a/w. Vikash Kumar, Adv. i/b. Anil T Agarwal for defendant.

CORAM : MRS. ROSHAN DALVI, J.

DATE : 17th June, 2015.

P.C. :

1. The admissibility of the several documents of the plaintiffs have been considered. The documents have been marked P-1 to P-21. Certain documents have not been marked. The plaintiffs have applied for leave of the Court under Order 7 Rule 14 of the CPC to tender further documents. These are three letters. The letters are not shown to be sent to and received by the defendant. Hence the letters cannot be marked in evidence, as they cannot be proved and their admissibility cannot be accepted. Consequently leave cannot be granted.

2. Hence Chamber Summons is dismissed.
