ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
ARBITRATION PETITION NO.734 OF 2015

L & T Finance Limited ...Petitioner
V/s.
Mr.Machindra Laxman Rode & Ors. ...Respondents

Ms.Sharayu Pednekar, i/b. Vivek Patil & Associates for the Petitioner.

None for the Respondents.

CORAM : R.D. DHANUKA, J.
DATE : 9TH SEPTEMBER, 2015.

P.C. :-

1. This Petition is filed by the Petitioner under section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 for seeking reliefs as prayed against the respondents.
2. Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner tenders an affidavit of service and states that the respondents are served. The affidavit of service is taken on record. None appears for the respondents though served. No affidavit in reply is filed.
3. The Petitioner had provided a loan of Rs.20,00,000/- to the first Respondents under a Loan-cum-Hypothecation Agreement entered into on 30th October, 2013. The loan was repayable in 48 equated monthly installments. Clause 12 of the agreement provides for the events of default; Clause 13 provides for consequences in the event of default and Clause 14 provides for the rights of the Petitioner on default including repossession of the assets and Clause 17 provides for arbitration. There has been a default on the part of the Respondents. Petitioner issued legal notice dated 13th March, 2015 and called upon the respondents to pay Rs. 18,26,335/- with further interest thereon. There was no response to the notice of demand. A perusal of record indicates that respondents have committed default in making payment of installments. The petitioner has invoked the provision of arbitration.

4. In the present petition, the petitioner has sought appointment of the Court Receiver as Receiver of the hypothecated vehicle/equipment, more particularly described in Exhibit-F to the Petition. In absence of any defence or contest by the Respondents, the averments contained in Petition would have to be accepted. There has been a default in payment of the outstanding dues. It would, therefore, be necessary to safeguard the interest of the petitioner by appointing the Court Receiver as Receiver of the hypothecated vehicle/equipment. The appointment of the Receiver is necessary in order to ensure that the vehicle/equipment is not wasted or alienated, thereby defeating the rights of the petitioner. Section 9 empowers the Court to pass an interim measure of protection. Hence, the following order:-

- i) The Court Receiver, High Court, Bombay is appointed as a Receiver in respect of the vehicle/equipment at Ex.F. The Court Receiver shall give an option to the respondents in writing to act as agents of Receiver in respect of the said vehicle/equipment. The Respondents shall be given two weeks time by the Court Receiver from the date of receipt of the Court Receiver's communication letter to exercise such option. In the event of the respondent/s being desirous of acting as agents of the Receiver, they shall be appointed as agents of the Receiver, subject to security and royalty. The Receiver shall determine the quantum of security and royalty having regard to the terms and conditions contained in the Loan-cum-Hypothecation Agreement (Exhibit – A to the Petition).

ii) In the event that the respondents do not communicate their willingness to the Receiver to act as agents within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of the communication from the Court Receiver, Court Receiver to take forcible possession of the vehicle/equipment and if necessary with the assistance of police from the respondents. It would be open to the petitioner to apply to the Court for further orders including sale of the vehicle/equipment by private treaty.

iii) Until the Receiver takes possession, there shall be an interim injunction restraining the Respondents from alienating, encumbering, parting with possession or creating any third party right in respect of the vehicle/equipment described in Exhibit–F to the Petition.

5. Petitioner is directed to approach the office of the Court Receiver for enforcement of this order within 4 weeks from today.

6. If the petitioner does not take steps for appointment of the arbitrator within four weeks from today, if not already appointed, interim order passed today to stand vacated without further reference to the Court.

7. The Arbitration Petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.

8. Parties as well as the Court Receiver to act on an authenticated copy of this order.
