Mr. Madhubala Kajale-AGP for Respondent No.1.

CORAM :- S. C. DHARMADHIKARI & G. S. KULKARNI, JJ.

DATED :- JULY 16, 2015

P.C. :-

In the event there is an order adverse to the Petitioner's interest and passed in pursuance of the notice which is impugned in this Writ Petition, then, while challenging the same, the Petitioner can raise all the contentions including that the authority issuing the notice has no jurisdiction, power and authority to deal with the Co-operative Housing Society registered under the Maharashtra Co-operative Housing Societies Act, 1960. Similarly, the Petitioner can impugn any adverse order in terms of the Maharashtra Co-operative Housing Societies Act, 1960 and before any Appellate/Revisional authority, permissible in law. All such courses and contentions so also objections of the Petitioner therein are kept open. With this clarification, the Writ Petition need not be kept pending. It is disposed of accordingly.

2) This order is passed after hearing all parties including Mr.Saraf who sought intervention on behalf of the Intervener. In view of the disposal of the Writ Petition, the Notice of Motion does not survive and stands disposed of as such.
