27th March, 2015.

P.C. :

The question involved in the Petition is academic issues.

2. Time and again it has been held that the Court should not unnecessarily go into the academic issues unless on facts the Petition could be decided.

3. We, therefore, dispose of the Petition as having rendered infructuous. However, we make it clear that we have not adverted to the merits of the matter and the challenges raised by the Petitioner are kept open to be agitated by the Petitioner at the appropriate stage in appropriate proceedings.
