CORAM : Z.A. HAQ, J
DATE : 9th January, 2015.

Heard Ms. Payal Khare, the learned Advocate holding for Shri Kakde, the learned Advocate for the petitioner and Shri D.S. Thakur, the learned Advocate for the respondent no.1.

The learned Advocate for the respective parties submit that the order passed by the School Tribunal the breach of which is complained in the contempt petition, has been set aside by this Court and the matter is remanded to the School Tribunal for fresh decision.

In view of these facts, without delving into the issue as to whether there had been wilful disobedience on the part of the respondents, in my view, this is not a fit case for invoking the jurisdiction under the provisions of the Contempt of Courts Act.

The Contempt petition is dismissed. In the circumstances, the parties to bear their own costs.
