Heard.

We find that despite our directions to the respondents to complete the enquiry, the respondents have not completed the enquiry till date. Though a statement was made on affidavit in April, 2014 that the enquiry would be completed within a period of 4-5 months, the same is not completed. We prima facie find that the applicants cannot take recourse to the amended provisions to seek the completion of the enquiry within a period of 2 years from the order of this Court as this is not a case of initiation of the enquiry, as the matter was remanded by the appellate Court for completion of enquiry after issuing certain directions.

Now, a statement is made by the learned Government Pleader that the enquiry would be completed by 31-3-2016.

We grant an opportunity to the applicants to complete the enquiry before 31-3-2016 by way of last chance.

Stand over to 1st week of April, 2016 for further consideration.

The civil application stands disposed of.
