Court's or Judge's orders

Mrs. R.S. Sirpurkar, counsel for the appellant.
 Shri B.V. Chavan, counsel for the respondent.

CORAM : SMT. VASANTI A. NAIK AND
A.M. BADAR, JJ.

DATE : JULY 22, 2015.

Heard.

The learned counsel for the parties state that the parties have compromised the matter in terms of the agreement that was executed by the parties in the presence of and with the intervention of the Mediator on 01.07.2015. It is stated that the parties have decided to live together in the welfare of the daughter. The respondent has agreed to withdraw the legal proceedings initiated by her against her husband-appellant within a period of one month. It is stated that if necessary, the appellant-Husband would approach the High Court for quashing the First Information Report. It is stated in the agreement that the parties have withdrawn all the adverse allegations against each other and their respective family members.

The parties are personally present in the Court, today. On the query of the Court, they have stated that they are ad-idem on the terms of the agreement signed by the parties on 01.07.2015 and they would abide by the agreement. We find that the agreement is signed by the counsel for the respective parties and also by the Mediator. Hence, the family Court Appeal is disposed of in terms of the agreement dated 01.07.2015.

A decree be drawn accordingly. No order as to costs.
