Heard.

In the Civil Revision Application No.92/2000 the order passed by the Executing Court in Regular Darkhast No.128/1998 has been challenged. By the impugned order, the Executing Court has directed the judgment debtor to execute the sale deed in favour of the decree holder.

The Civil Application No.62/2012 is filed by Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye seeking permission to intervene in the proceedings. The contention of the applicant - Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye is that he has lent certain amount to the Trust which in turn is paid to the applicant (Shri Maqusudal Kabir Siddiqui) in the revision application. The alleged transaction between the applicant - Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye and the original applicant (Shri Maqusudal Kabir Siddiqui) is not the subject matter of the proceedings and it is a private transaction between the parties. The private transaction, if any, does not create any right in favour of the present applicant - Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye to participate in the proceedings. The application does not disclose the provision under which the permission can be granted. Shri A.P. Thakre, the learned advocate for the applicant - Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye has not been able to point out any provision under which the permission as prayed for can be granted. In view of this, the civil application is dismissed. No costs.

The claim made by the applicant - Shri Deepak Namdeo Dhamgaye has not been adjudicated by this Court.
