CORAM : Z.A. HAQ, J.
DATED : 17-07-2015

These petitions raise a common ground i.e. about the eligibility of the respondents to contest the elections.

2. The submission of the petitioners is that the respondents have not paid the difference of amount as per the enhanced building fee as resolved in the meeting dated 04-09-2011. Shri F.T. Mirza, learned Advocate for the respondent No.3 has pointed out the resolution No.10/8 by which the decision to enhance the building fee was taken and building fee was enhanced from Rs.200/- to Rs.500/-. The submission on behalf of the respondent is that the enhanced building fee is to be charged from the new members to be enrolled and enhanced fee is not to be charged to the members who are enrolled prior to 04-09-2011. The appellate authority has considered the resolution and has taken the possible view which cannot be said to be perverse.

3. I see no reason to interfere with the impugned order. The petitions are dismissed. In the circumstances, the parties to bear their own costs.
