

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH, NAGPUR

Writ Petition No.5004 of 2014
(Dipak s/o Chandrakant Khot v. Sau. Shakuntala w/o Ashokkumar Lohia and another)

Office Notes, Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions Court's or Judge's orders and Registrar's order

Shri S.V. Sohoni, Advocate for Petitioner.

Shri S.C. Mehadia, Advocate for Respondent No.2.

Coram : R.K. Deshpande, J.

Dated : 13th January, 2015

It is the contention of Shri Sohoni, the learned counsel for the petitioner that the evidence of the power of attorney in the present case would be inadmissible. This point can be argued at the time of final hearing of the suit, which shall be decided by the Trial Court in due course.

No interference is called for. The petition is dismissed. All questions are left open to be decided in the Regular Civil Suit, if any such occasion arises.

Judge.

Lanjewar