CORAM : SMT. VASANTI A. NAIK &
A. I. S. CHEEMA, JJ.

DATE : 14.09.2015.

The learned counsel for the respondents-Western Coalfields Ltd. states that the issue involved in this case was also involved in a bunch of writ petitions bearing Writ Petition No.5826 of 2011 and others and this Court has after hearing the parties, by an order dated 07/08/2012, dismissed the writ petitions. It is stated that in the instant case also the land of the petitioners was acquired much before the formulation of the policy of 2008 and, therefore, the petitioners cannot avail the benefit of the said policy. It is stated that though the petitioners in Writ Petition Nos.5826 of 2011 and others had challenged the order dated 07/08/2012 in a special leave petition, according to the learned counsel for the respondents, the said special leave petition has been dismissed on 27/08/2015.

For the reasons recorded in the order dated 07/08/2012, in Writ Petition Nos.5826 of 2011 and others and in view of the statement made on behalf of the respondents about the dismissal of the special leave petition, we dispose of the writ petition with no order as to costs.
