Dated this the 30th day of January, 2015

ORDER

Petition filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C.

2. Petitioner is the second accused in Crime No.602 of 2014 of the Vengara Police Station, Malappuram registered for the offences punishable under Section 379 IPC and Sections 20 and 23 of the Kerala Protection of River Banks and Regulation of Removal of Sand Act, 2001.

3. The allegation against the petitioner and the other accused is that on 30.12.2014 at 04.30 a.m., they were found transporting sand illegally collected from the river without any licence or authorization, by lorry bearing registration No.KL-3-D-365. The driver of the vehicle was arrested and he was enlarged on bail.

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the CD.

5. According to the investigating officer the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle. No criminal antecedents have been reported against the petitioner. It seems that the sand illegally collected and the vehicle, have been seized in the case. Investigation of the case is practically over. Custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required in the matter as there is nothing more to be recovered. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the absence of any criminal antecedents on his part, I am of the view that this is a fit case wherein anticipatory bail can be granted to the petitioner.

In the result, this bail application is allowed and the investigating officer or such other police officer, who is conducting the arrest of the petitioner, is directed to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest on his executing a bond for ₹25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two solvent sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of the officer conducting arrest, and subject to the following terms and conditions:-

(i) The petitioner shall report before the investigating officer in between 09.00 a.m. and 11.00 a.m. on all Fridays and Tuesdays commencing from 06.02.2015 for a period of three months or till the filing of the final report in this case, whichever is earlier.

(ii) The petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or influence witnesses.

(iii) The petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation as and when required by the investigating officer.

(iv) The petitioner shall not involve in any offence while on bail.

It is made clear that the violation of any of the
