B.A No. 593 of 2015

Dated this the 4th day of June, 2015.

O R D E R

Petitioners are alleged to have committed the offence under Section 306 IPC. Petitioners are husband and wife. A brother of the first petitioner committed suicide. It is alleged that the petitioners abetted his suicide.

2. Heard.

3. The deceased has left behind a suicide note. It discloses that he committed suicide because there were litigations between him and the first petitioner. There is no other reason mentioned in the suicide note. But the statement of the wife of the deceased is that the first petitioner exhorted the deceased to commit suicide. It is only proper that the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail.

In the result, this application is allowed.

1) The petitioners shall be released on bail after interrogation on their executing a bond for Rs.25,000/-

(Rupees Twenty five thousand only) each with two solvent sureties each for the like sum if they are arrested by the Police in connection with this case.

2) They shall appear before the Investigating Officer for interrogation if they are so required by him in writing.

3) They shall not get themselves involved in any other criminal case while they are on bail.

4) They shall not intimidate or attempt to influence the witnesses.

5) They shall not destroy or tamper with the evidence.

In case of violation of any of the above conditions, the learned Magistrate is empowered to cancel the bail in accordance with the law.
