B.A. No.1711 of 2015

Dated this the 21st day of May, 2015

ORDER

Petition filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C.

2. The petitioner is alleged to have committed the offence under Sections 354(A), 376 and 420 of the Indian penal Code.

3. The case is that he made false promise to the victim that he would marry her and now he has refused to marry her.

4. Heard.

5. It is not in dispute that the victim is a married woman and she has a son aged about 18 years. Prima facie, it can not be accepted that she believed the words of the petitioner that he would marry her. Marriage between them was legally impossible at the relevant time. So I am inclined to grant the prayer for bail.

In the result, this application is allowed.

1) The petitioner shall be released on bail after interrogation on their executing a bond for Rs.Twenty five thousand only with two solvent sureties each for the like sum if he is arrested by the Police in connection with this case.

2) The petitioner shall appear before the Investigating

Officer for interrogation if he is so required by him in writing.

3) The petitioner shall not destroy or tamper with evidence.

4) The petitioner shall not harass the defacto complainant or her relatives. He shall cooperate with the investigation.

In case of violation of any of the above conditions, the learned Magistrate is empowered to cancel the bail in accordance with the law.
